

NO DELAY ON RECIPROCITY

Opponents Unable to Side-track Agreement.

HOUSE TAKES UP THE BILL

By Vote of 197 to 120—Passage of Measure Expected Before Adjournment To-day—Republicans Form Greater Part of Minority.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The McCall bill, carrying into effect the Canadian reciprocity agreement, reached the floor of the House yesterday and probably will be passed by that body before adjournment to-night. Even the opponents of the measure admitted that there was no hope of stopping it in the House.

A test vote came soon after the House was called to order. Mr. McCall moved the immediate consideration of his bill. This was objected to, ostensibly on the ground that it was District of Columbia day on the calendar and that important matters of legislation affecting the district were pending.

When the voting began, however, it became apparent that, with comparatively few exceptions, the lines were being drawn between those favoring and those opposing the trade agreement. As finally corrected the vote to take up the bill was 197 to 120. The bill will be passed, it is expected, by even a larger majority.

Yesterday, 101 Republicans voted against immediate consideration. This number will show a decided diminution on the final roll call. Sixty-three Republicans voted for immediate consideration.

The Democratic vote was divided 134 in favor of consideration and 19 against. As in the case of some of the opposing Republicans, a few of the Democrats voted against immediate consideration because they are members of the District of Columbia committee. Democratic leaders say there will be but six or seven votes against the passage of the bill from their side.

No time for a vote was set yesterday, but Mr. McCall will endeavor to secure an agreement to end general debate at 5 o'clock to-day and then to begin the reading of the bill for amendment, the House to remain in session until the measure is passed. All amendments, except one or two minor ones to the wool pulp schedule to correct errors will be voted down, for serious amendment would nullify the agreement.

The test vote taken yesterday and the general debate that followed, clearly demonstrated the serious split that exists among the Republicans of the House on reciprocity. It now appears that a majority of the Republicans will vote against the measure, although the president is likely to get more support from that side of the chamber that he at first anticipated. Like the regulars, the insurgent ranks also are torn wide open, and like the regulars again, a majority of them will vote against the measure.

Some of the Republicans who spoke yesterday declared they saw in the reciprocity agreement the beginning of the end of protection.

The Democrats applauded this loudly. Mr. Martin of South Dakota was particularly apprehensive over the assault on the principle of protection. Mr. Kendall of Iowa also took a mournful view of the situation. He declared that reciprocity was being supported by a minority of Republicans, "anxious to imitate the Democrats" and by a majority of Democrats, "determined to destroy the Republican party."

"I decline," he said, "to witness the assassination without entering a protest."

The Republican split is accentuated by the fact that one member of that party, Mr. McCall of Massachusetts is directing the debate in favor of the measure, and another Republican, Mr. Dazell of Pennsylvania, is directing the fight against it.

Hill of Connecticut opened the debate in favor of the bill and was the only Republican to advocate it yesterday. He was seconded by Representatives Harrison of New York and A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, Democrats.

Representatives Gaines of West Virginia, Martin of South Dakota and Kendall of Iowa, all Republicans, spoke against reciprocity.

Mr. Hill contended that a protective tariff presupposes reciprocity and trade agreements and that a free trade policy

MOST CERTAIN WAY TO END A BAD COLD

Surely Breaks the Most Severe Cold and Ends Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

You distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. It promptly ends the most miserable headache, neuralgia pains, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe. Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

has nothing to give in return for concession and hence nothing to gain from them.

"Since the Republican party was organized and while it has been in power," said Mr. Hill, "there never has been a time that reciprocal agreements with other countries have not been in operation and President Taft stands to-day in full harmony with Lincoln, Grant, McKinley, Roosevelt and all of his illustrious predecessors with regard to that principle."

Mr. Gaines complained that the reciprocity measure had been railroaded through with "indecent haste." He declared the committee on ways and means had not allowed him to call experts to testify and that little or nothing was known about the measure.

Mr. Harrison of New York, favoring the measure, said the Democrats were anxious to have reciprocity. It would show the American farmer in a very little while, he asserted, that protection has been of no benefit to him. The farmer, he said, for years had been held in line for Republicanism through false pretenses.

And when he finds that protection was a humbug in his case," added Mr. Harrison, "he will help us get better tariff schedules as to other things."

BILL IS INDORSED.

Bay State Senate Favors Agreement With Canada.

Boston, Feb. 14.—Senator Brown of Medford stole a march on his colleagues yesterday by securing the passage in the Senate of an order indorsing Representative Samuel W. McCall's reciprocity bill. Hearings on various reciprocity orders and resolves are being held at the State House but Senator Brown's action places the Senate on record without the formality of a hearing on the pending propositions.

SENATE GLORY QUICK TO FADE

Aldrich, Who Only a Little Time Ago Seemed the Whole Thing, Is Scarcely Missed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The Senate is a good place to teach one what the vanity of all earthly things really means. True, some of the senators never find out about it until too late. But in recent weeks there has been a striking example of what the saying does mean in the case of two of the most prominent members of the Senate—Aldrich and Hale.

Senator Aldrich, leader of the Senate Republicans, head of the finance committee, about whom some folks think, or used to think, the Senate revolved, started south some weeks ago, broken in health, and resolved not to return to the Senate. His term ends March 3. He has dropped out of Senate affairs suddenly, and his absence is but seldom commented upon.

Senator Hale has been ill for several days at a time in the session when the stress of business is becoming great. Somehow the wheels of the Senate machine run along whether he is on hand or not. And he will drop out of Senate life March 3, and presently he will be remembered longer than most of the senators whose fate it is to retire to private life.

Texas folks who are familiar with the country along the Rio Grande, where Lieut. Foulis is ordered to do scouting work in an aeroplane, say it is a hazardous place for aeroplaning. They predict that the airships sent there will speedily be ruined.

"Let the engines of an airship once give way in this country and it will be all off with the airship," said a Texan who knows the region like a book. "The mesquite growth is from eight to thirty feet high, and among the mesquite are cacti two to five feet high. An airship might follow the course of the river safely, but let it depart from that and drop among the mesquite, and it will be utterly impossible to get it out. Moreover, on account of the mesquite it will be impossible to discover with accuracy the presence or absence of insurgents or other Mexicans."

FOR BIG PENSION BILL

Sulloway Measure Favored by Committee.

WOULD ADD $50,000,000

A Large Increase Is Proposed for the Veterans—Some Doubt About Approval by the President.

Washington, Feb. 14.—By a vote of eight to three, the Senate committee on pensions yesterday agreed to report to the Senate the Sulloway general pension bill, which already has passed the House. It was amended so that the annual cost, in addition to the $153,000,000 estimated for the ensuing year, will be about $45,000,000.

As the bill passed the House, it would have cost about $50,000,000.

Senator McCumber, chairman of the committee, opposed the bill and endeavored to have the committee report a measure which would cost for the first year about $3,000,000.

He was joined by Senators Gore and Taliaferro in making the minority on the final vote.

As passed by the House, the Sulloway bill would increase the monthly pension of veterans of 62 years from $12 to $15; of 65 years, from $12 to $20; of 70 years, from $15 to $25; and of 75 or more, from $20 to $36. The Senate committee, by a vote of six to five, reduced the proposed maximum allowance from $36 to $30.

Friends of the bill do not anticipate an easy time passing it through the Senate, especially as it has been intimated that President Taft would veto it if it were presented to him for his signature.

The motion in committee to report the Sulloway bill was made by Senator Curtis of Kansas and it is expected he will lead the fight for its passage by the Senate.

Later in the day, Senator Scott reported the bill to the Senate.

BRISTOW TARGET IN CURTIS SPEECH

Kansas Favors Direct Vote but Would Hold Safeguard for Election in South.

Washington, Feb. 14.—As "One of the senators from Kansas," Senator Curtis yesterday addressed the Senate in opposition to revised resolutions proposing to submit to states a constitutional amendment for the election of senators by direct vote. All through his speech, Senator Curtis attacked his colleague, Senator Bristow, for approving of the amended resolution.

Senator Curtis said that he was in favor of a constitutional amendment looking to the election of senators by direct vote, but he was not willing that it should be so amended that Congress should give up all its rights to make or alter the regulations of a state for the election of United States senators. This, he said, was what the amended resolution would provide. The amended resolution, if its substance was approved by the states, would result in the states disfranchising colored voters if they so desired without Congress being able to raise a hand.

Mr. Whitlock was asked what he knew about buying votes. He declined to answer, saying it would all be brought out at his trial and before the grand jury, if he was called.

Sheriff Shepard and his deputies began serving bench warrants yesterday morning on some of the persons who were indicted last week.

The grand jury was scheduled to assemble yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Bailey's speech was in the main a review of the law and the testimony in the case, but he introduced some novel points, the most striking of which was the assertion that forgery had been resorted to to make a case against Lorimer.

He charged that State Senator Holtzlaw's name was improperly spelled on the bank deposit slip for money alleged to have been received by him as a bribe. It developed that a portion of this statement rested on a brief in the case, but the Texas insisted that Holtzlaw had made the deposit personally.

Senator Cummins presented the original slip, which he said was not in Holtzlaw's writing, but Mr. Bailey refused to accept it.

PRICE OF EGGS AT LOW LEVEL

Chicago Quotes the Lowest February Figures Known in Many Years.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—A break of five to six cents a dozen in the price of eggs during the last week has brought values to the lowest level touched in February in many years. Extra eggs closed at 21 cents a dozen, while seconds brought only eight and ten cents.

Last September, following the long period of drought suffered by the country, eggs came forward in excessive quantities, and dealers placed them in cold storage in order to keep prices from declining. At that time they believed farms would not be of long duration, and that they would have little difficulty in clearing holdings at a profit later in the year.

Receipts continued of excessive volume longer than had been expected, however, and when values eased off there was a sudden rush to liquidate. Recent developments are traced back directly to last September's heavy egg production, and the reason dealers did not hold back supplies last week was because they held them back in September.

Mr. Whitlock was asked what he knew about buying votes. He declined to answer, saying it would all be brought out at his trial and before the grand jury, if he was called.

Sheriff Shepard and his deputies began serving bench warrants yesterday morning on some of the persons who were indicted last week.

New York, Feb. 14.—For the first time since the fight at the state convention at Saratoga last September, all factions of the Republican party in New York state gathered last night in harmony. The occasion was the 25th annual dinner of the Republican club of New York City, in commemoration of the one hundred and second anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew, Lloyd Griscom, Henry L. Stimson, Horace White, Frank S. Black and Timothy L. Woodruff were among the Republican leaders who were present. General Frederick D. Grant, General Thomas H. Barry and Admiral E. H. C. Leuze were also guests.

Colonel Roosevelt was the last speaker of the evening. He began by saying that he regarded the movement to elect senators by a popular vote a genuine, progressive policy.

TAFT FOR ABSTINENCE.

Letter Read in 3,000 Sunday Schools Advises Avoidance of Liquor.

Columbus, O., Feb. 14.—President Taft in a letter dated December 29, 1910, and read in 3,000 Sunday schools in the United States yesterday, sounded the keynote of a total abstinence movement. The letter is addressed to Sunday school pupils as "My dear young friends," and reads:—

"The excessive use of intoxicating liquors is the cause of a great deal of the poverty, degradation and crime of the world, and one who abstains from the use of such liquor avoids a dangerous temptation. Abraham Lincoln showed that he believed this in writing out for his boy friends the pledge of total abstinence, so often quoted. Each person must determine for himself the course he will take in reference to his tastes and appetites, but those who exercise the self-restraint to avoid altogether the temptation of alcoholic liquor are on the safe and wiser side."

Dr. Howard H. Russell of Westerville, O., founder of the Anti-Saloon league, is also founder of the Lincoln League, which caused Sunday's services throughout the United States. The movement will be directed as the total abstinence department of the Anti-Saloon league, with national headquarters at Westerville.

PEASANTS HEIRS OF TOLSTOI.

Literary Property Goes to Trustees Who Are to Buy Land.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 14.—It is reported that another will of Count Leo Tolstoy has been discovered, and that it prevents the intended disposal of his literary property to his widow.

Soon after Tolstoy's death, a will was found, but the one recently discovered is of later date, it is said, and voids the first one.

The new will, if the reports are correct, leaves all the author's literary property to trustees, who are instructed to devote the profits to the purchase of land, to be divided among the peasants of his old estate.

According to the former will, the Countess Tolstoy was to get all the estate and all the profits from Tolstoy's books for the next 25 years.
